

Paradigm Trust is seeking to appoint an Assistant Principal at Piper's Vale Primary Academy

Leadership scale L4-L13 (£43,034 - £53,723 per annum)

Paradigm Trust is an approved sponsor of six schools, three in London and more recently three in Suffolk. Culloden and Old Ford Primary Academies in London, the Trust's two founding academies, were joined by Solebay Primary Academy on 1st September 2014. Ipswich Academy in Suffolk joined the Trust on 1st September 2015, with Murrayfield Primary Academy joining the Trust on 1st January 2017 and more recently Piper's Vale Primary Academy on 1st September 2017.

Piper's Vale Primary Academy is seeking an energetic and innovative individual to join their leadership team. The candidate is likely to take on a phase responsibility for EYFS/Y1 and be operationally in-charge of the academy in the absence of the principal.

Leaders at Piper's Vale Primary Academy are committed to changing children's lives through education, and through continuing growth and commitment to excellence seeks to become one of the best schools in Ipswich.

As a Trust, we are outcomes-driven and welcome discussions of flexible working options. Paradigm Trust is also committed to reducing unnecessary workload for staff, so they can focus on their role and their own development. We are actively engaged in identifying and degrading unnecessary workload and our approaches to leadership and management are fully aligned with the DfE's guidance on reducing teacher workload.
