

Pedagogy Newsletter #37

27th September 2019

Dear colleagues,

It is important to remember that when teaching, order and joy go together. The best way to have students take pleasure in learning is to build a culture of expectations and procedures intentionally so things work right and so students KNOW they'll work that way.

Below is a link to a video which shows how joy and order go hand in hand.

<https://teachlikeachampion.com/blog/teaching-and-schools/sarah-wright-shows-joy-order-go-together/>

Many thanks

Kavitha Nicholas-Raymond

Culloden Primary Academy

